Hand in hand we come christopher robin and i to lay this book in your lap say you're surprised?
say you like it?
say it's just what you wanted?
because it's yours—
because we love you.

THE SPIRIT OF '76

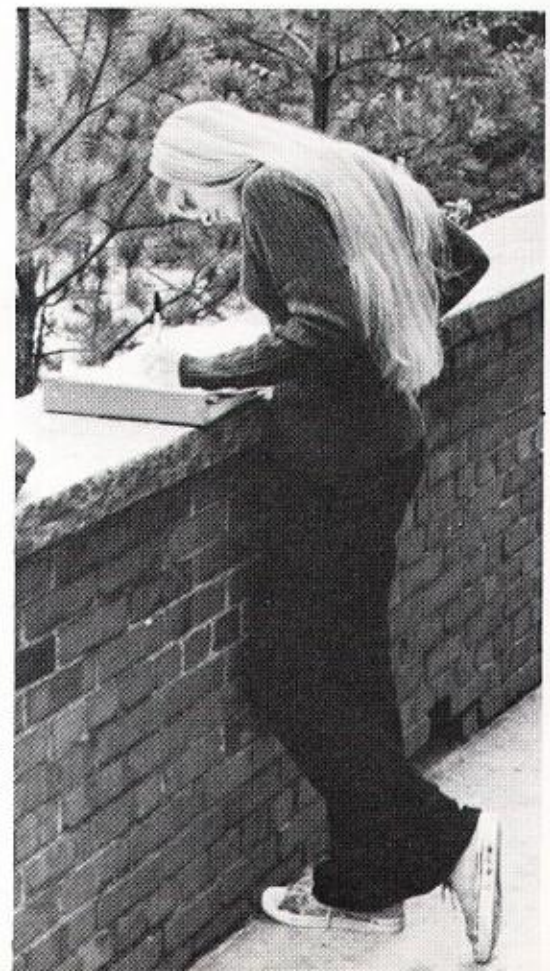

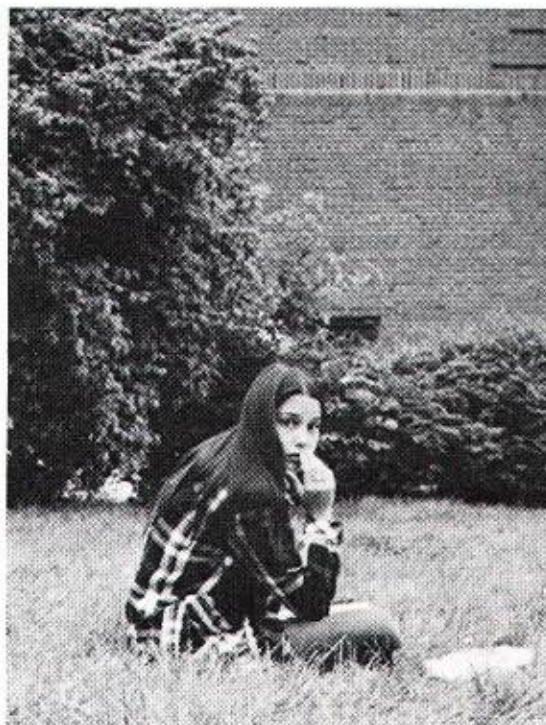

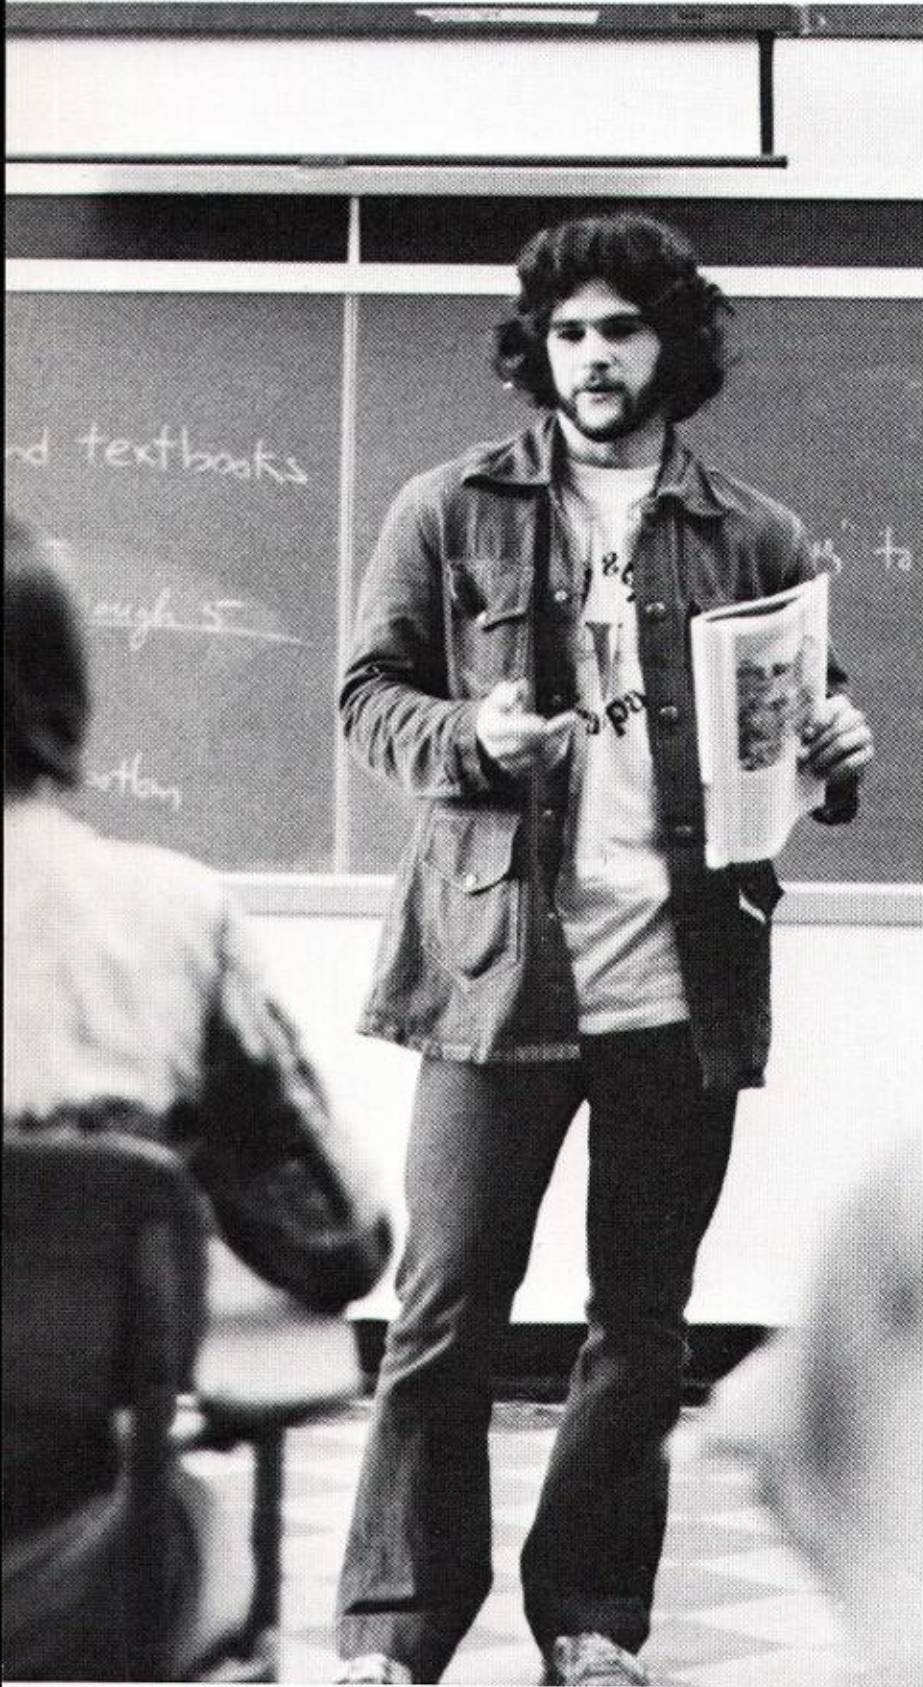

Al...

I love the colorful clothes she wears and the way the sunshine plays upon her hair...

Good Vibrations!!

GOOD VIBRATIONS!

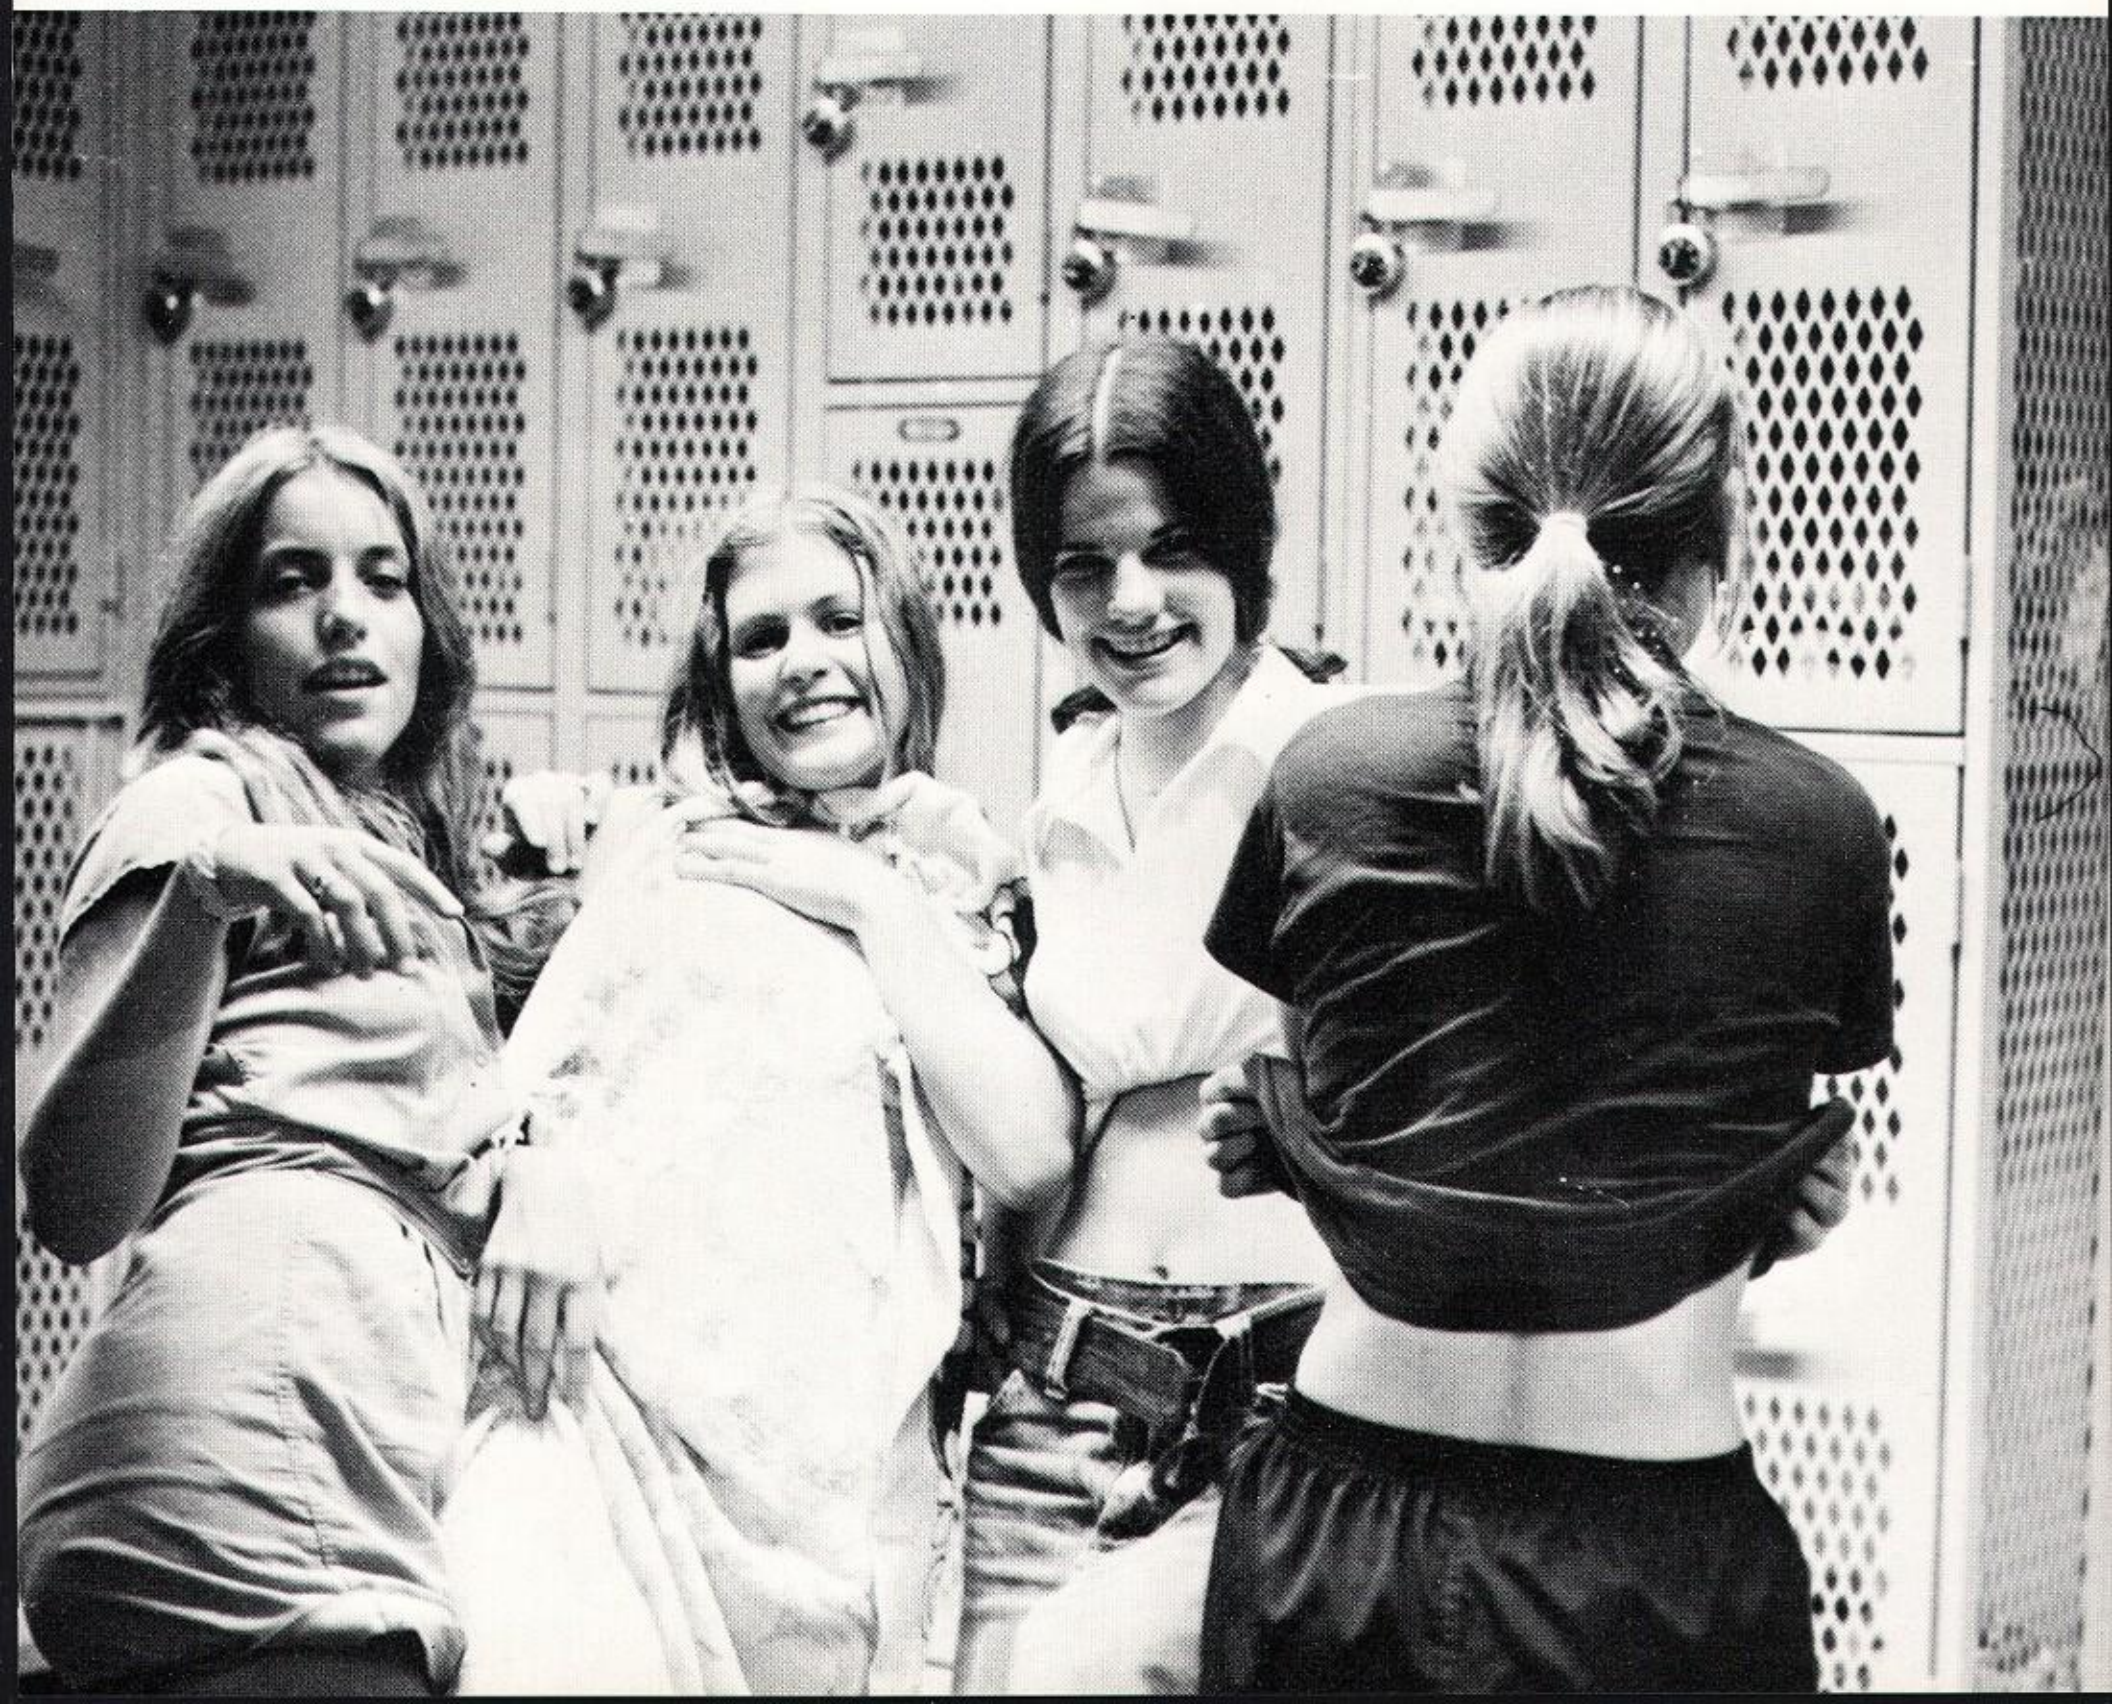

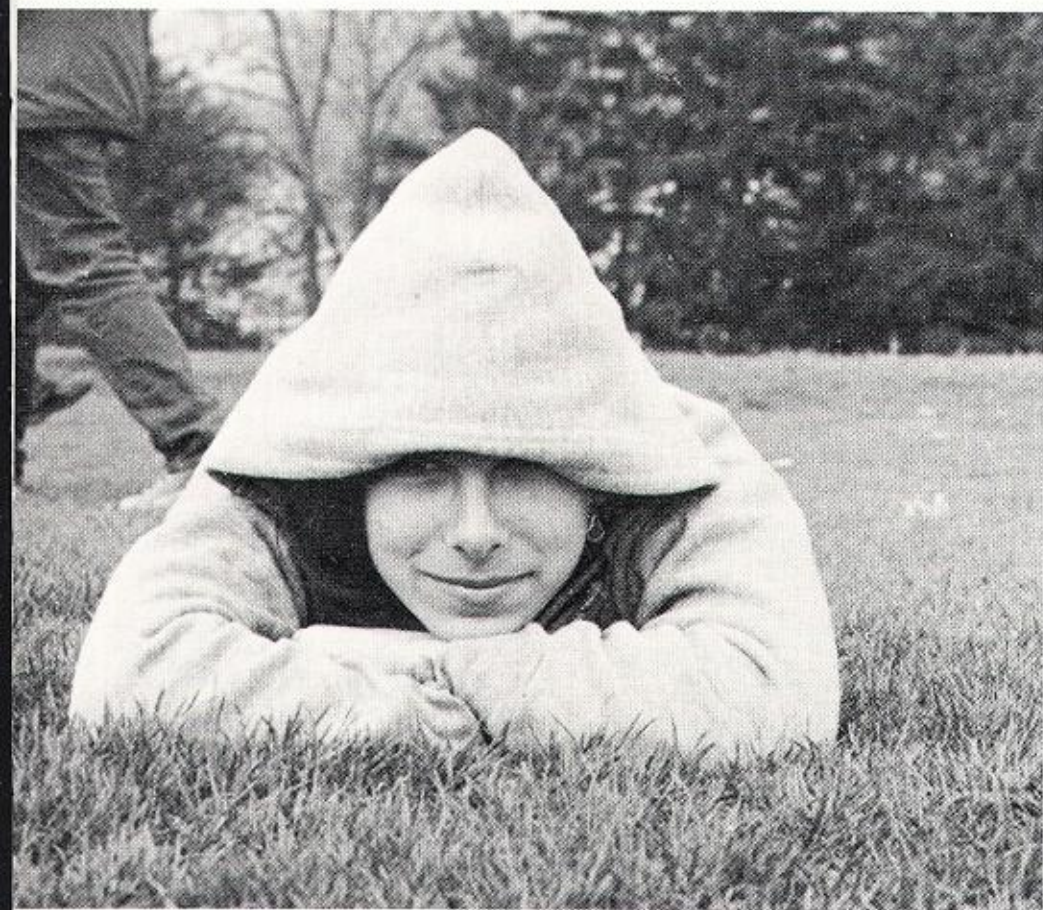

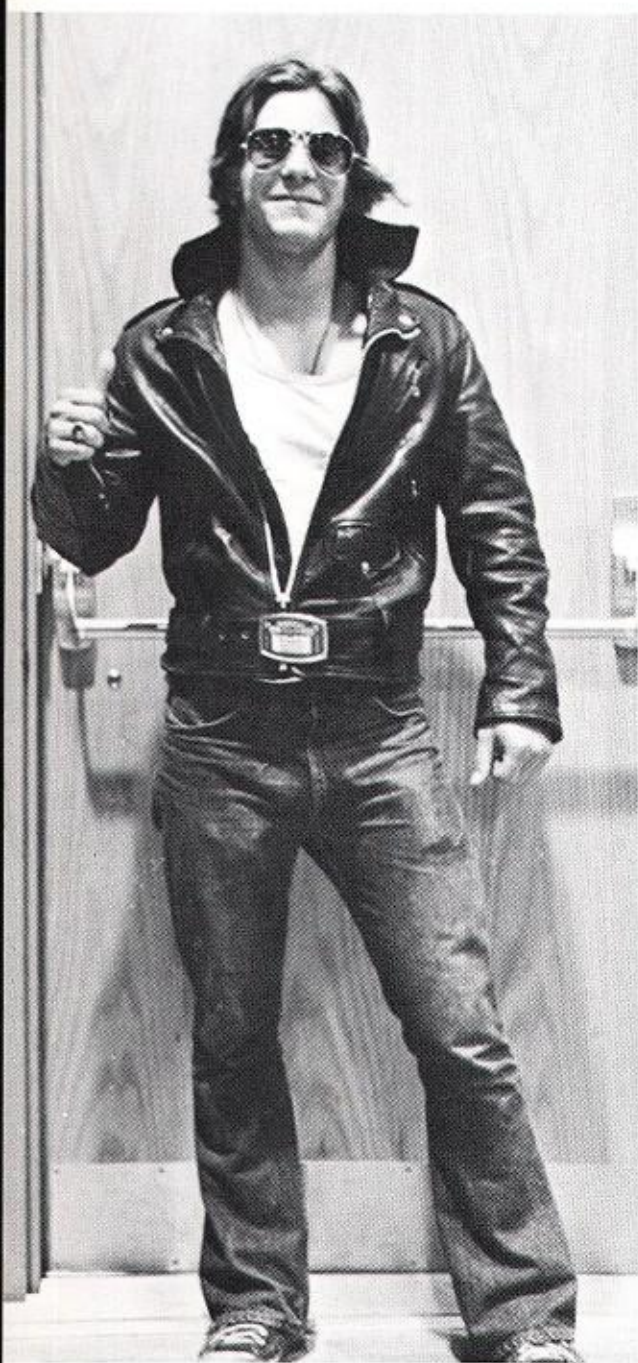

Ah, but I was so much older then . . .

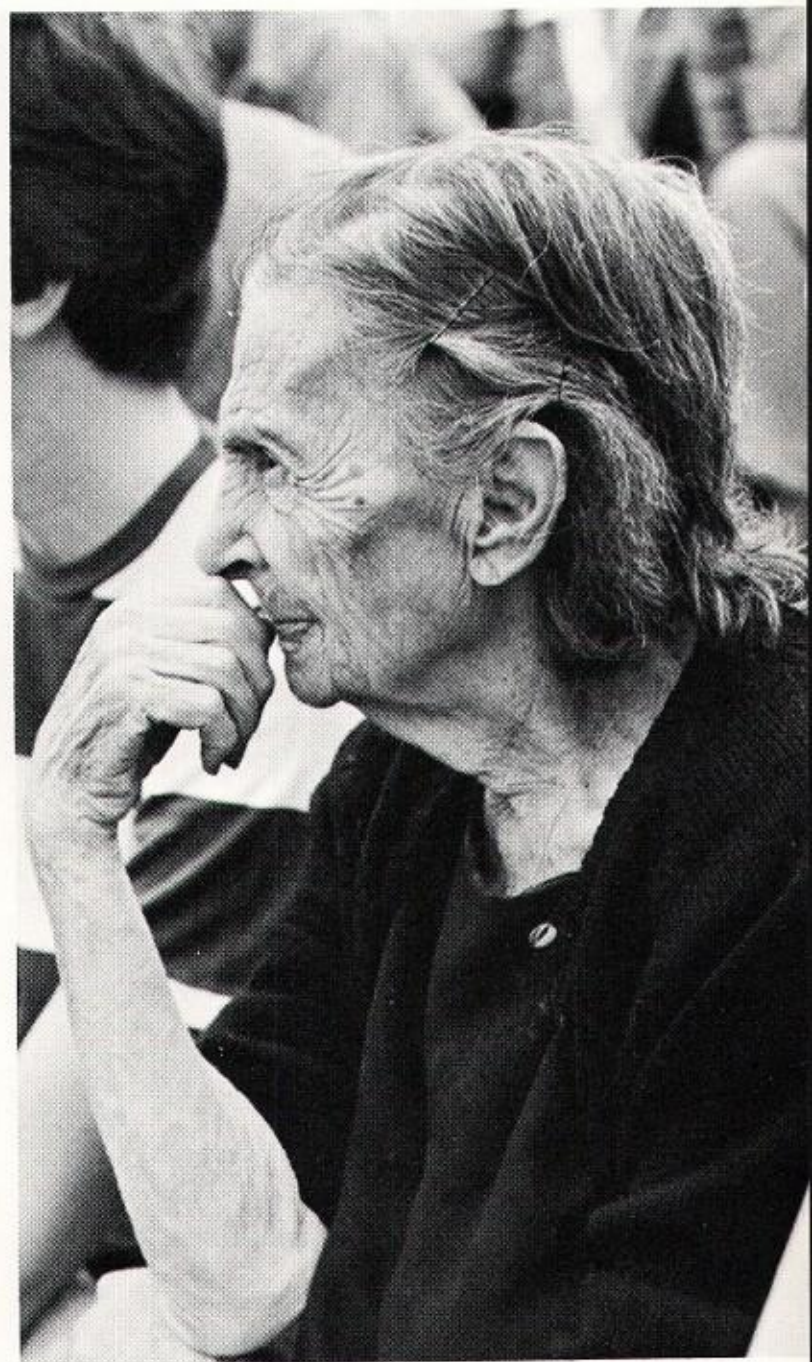

I'm younger than that now.

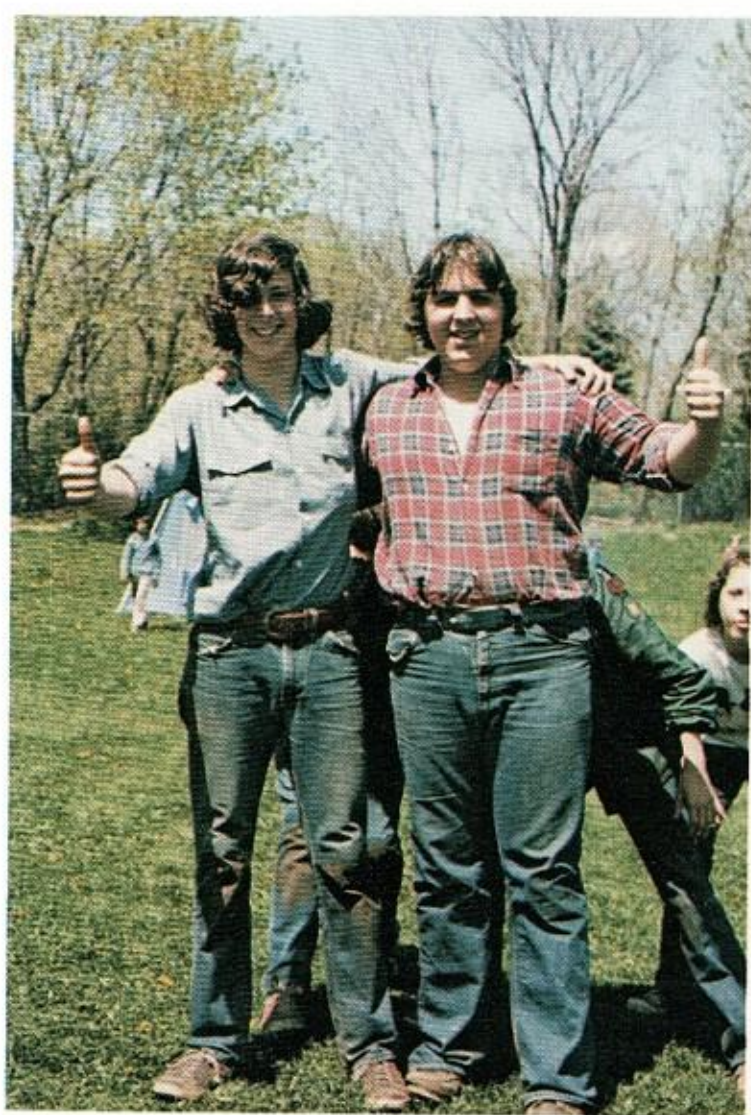

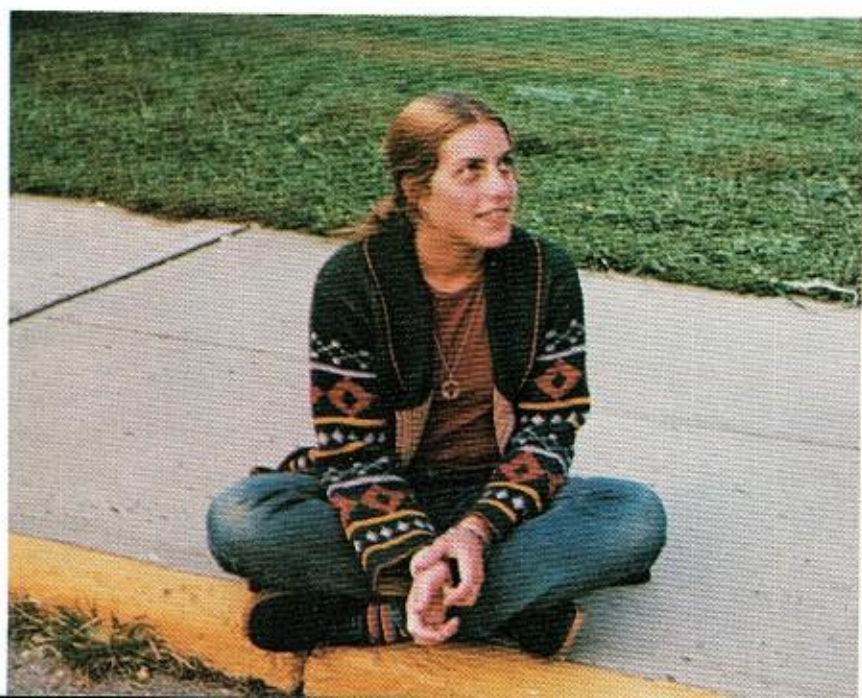

I feel
 drops of rain,
 And it goes;
 SPLISH! SPLOSH!
 on my head.
 And sometimes it goes;
 SPLASH! BANG! CRASH!
 on my coconut.

If you smile at me I will understand,
'cause that is something everybody, everywhere
does in the same language..

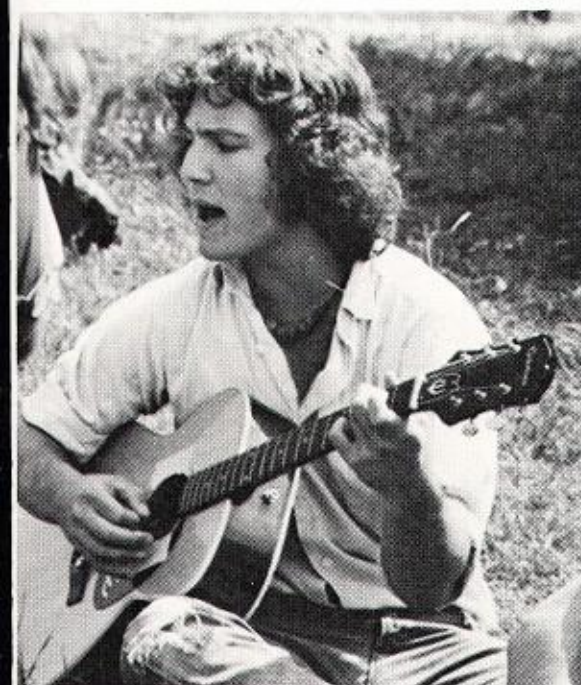

Tiger got to hunt;
 Bird got to fly,
 Man got to sit and wonder, "Why, why, why?"

Tiger got to sleep
 Bird got to land,
 Man got to tell himself
 he understand.

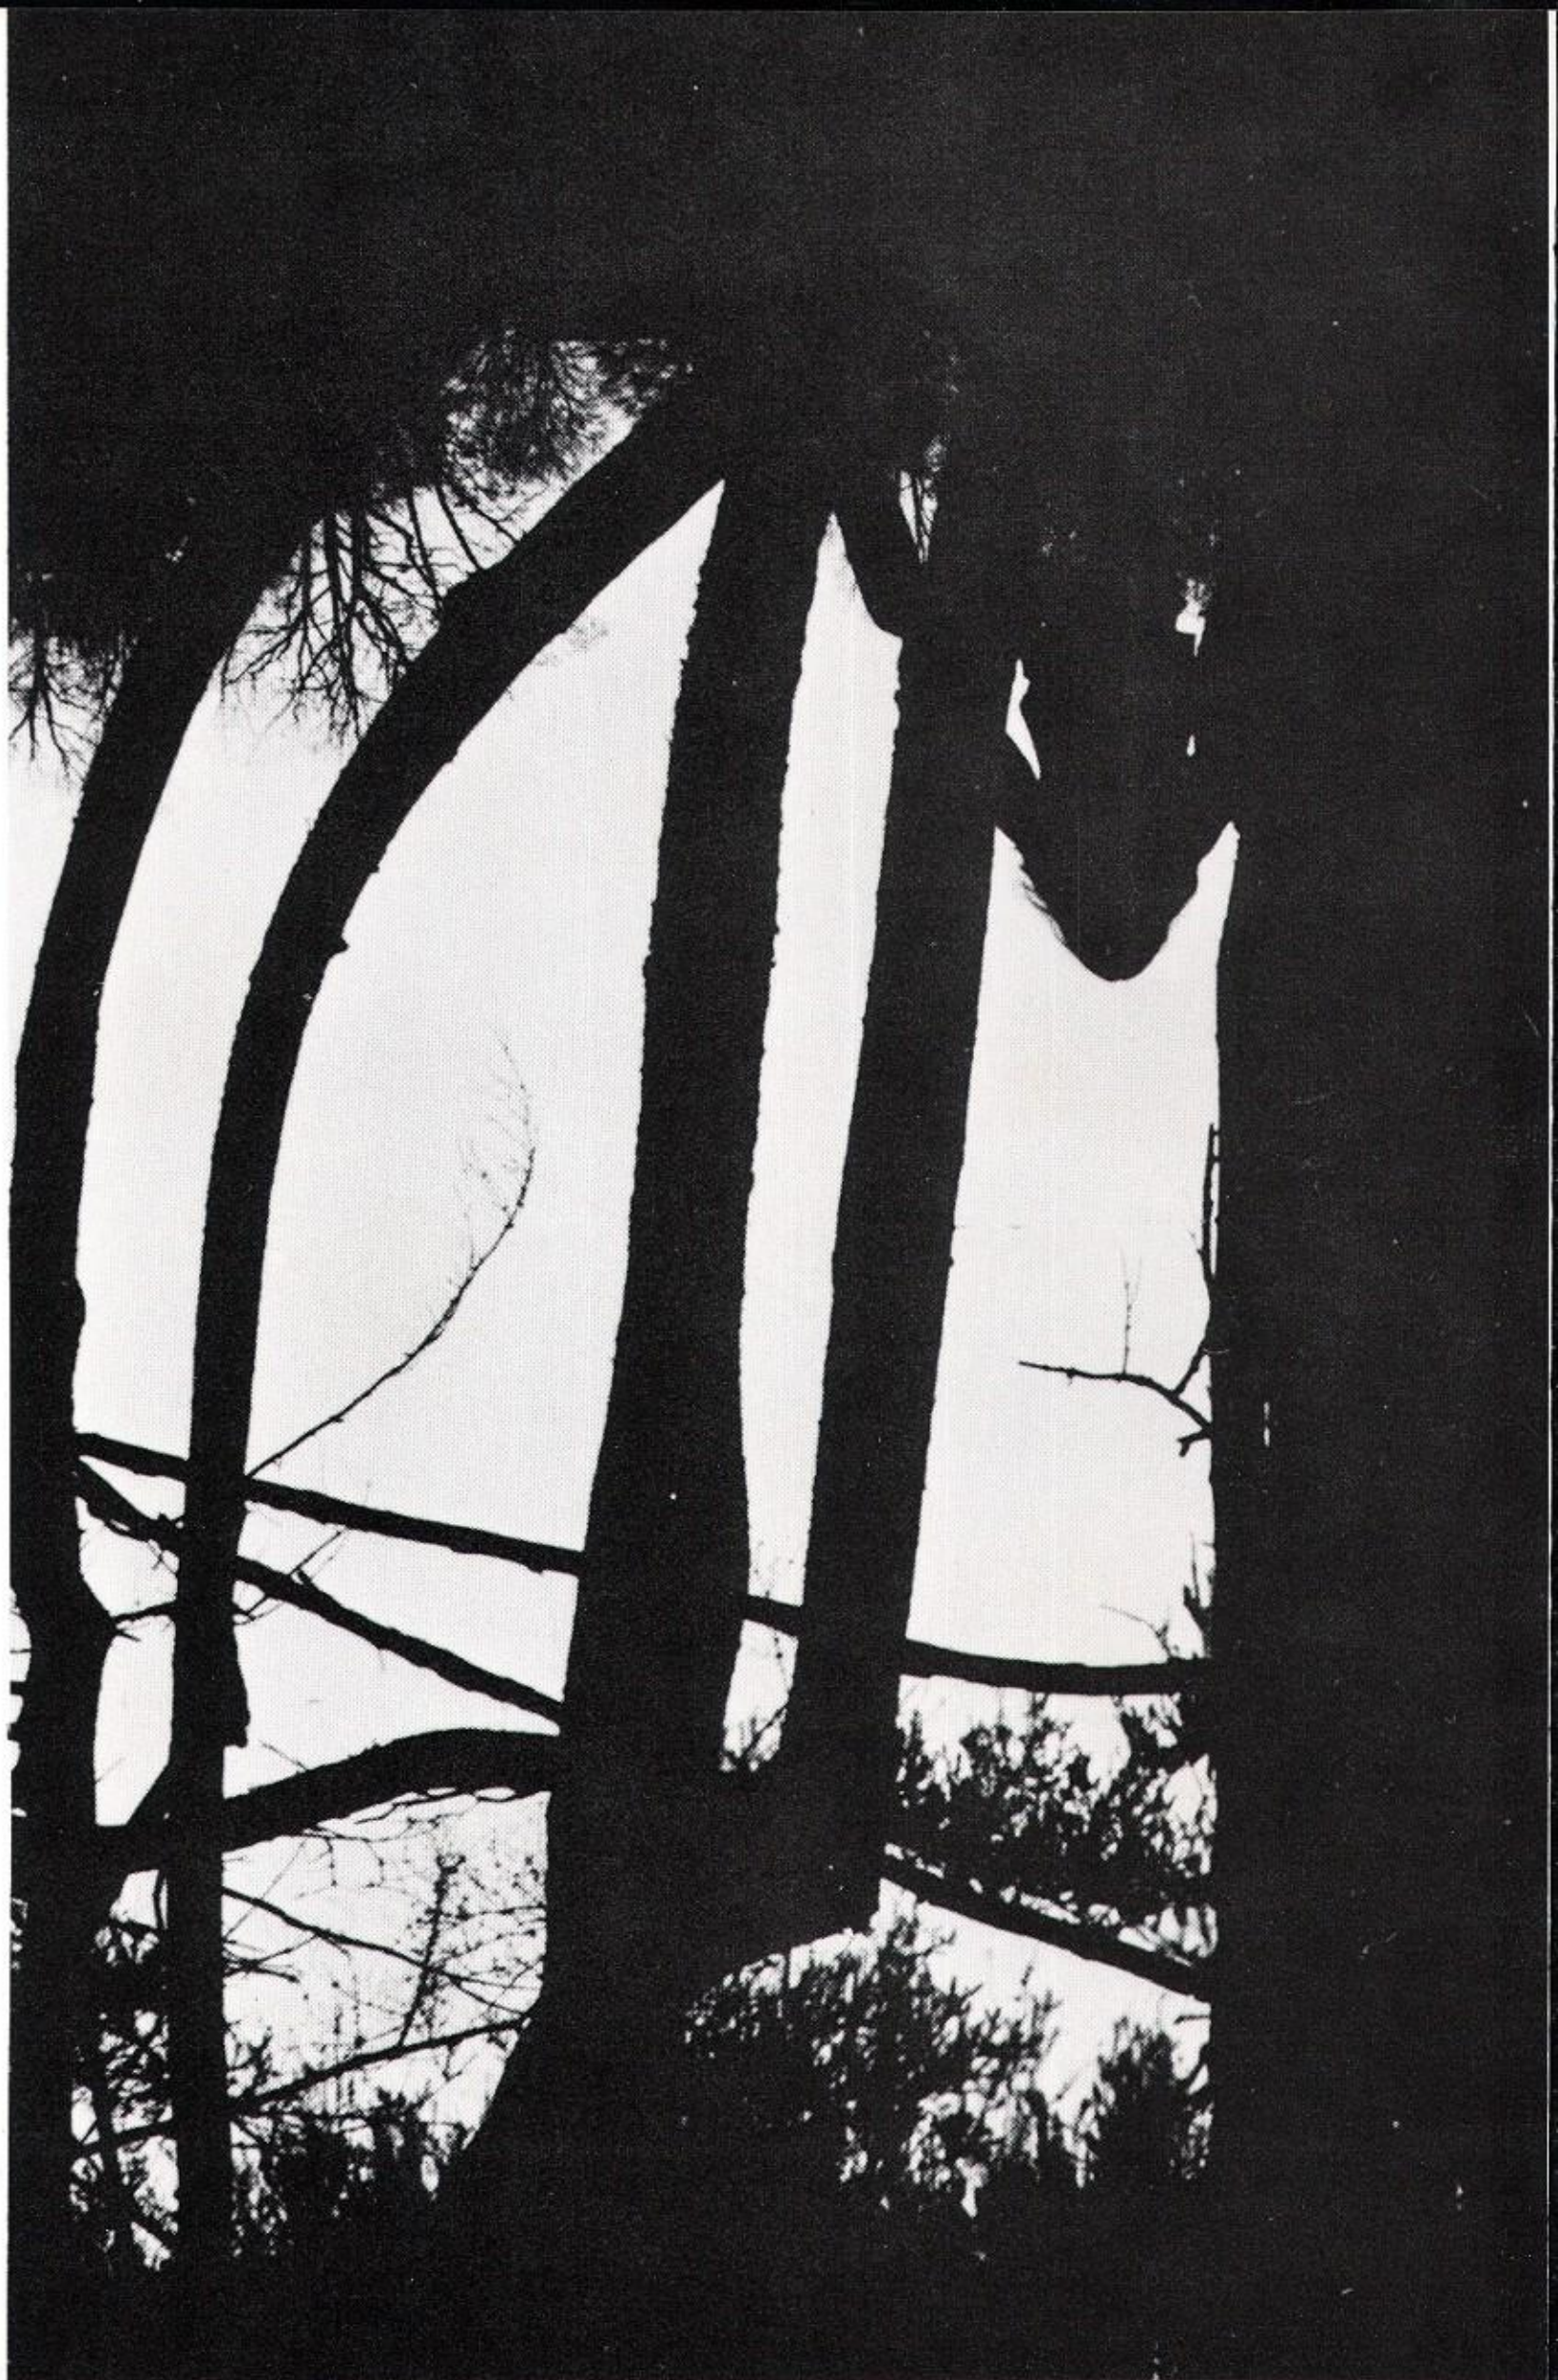

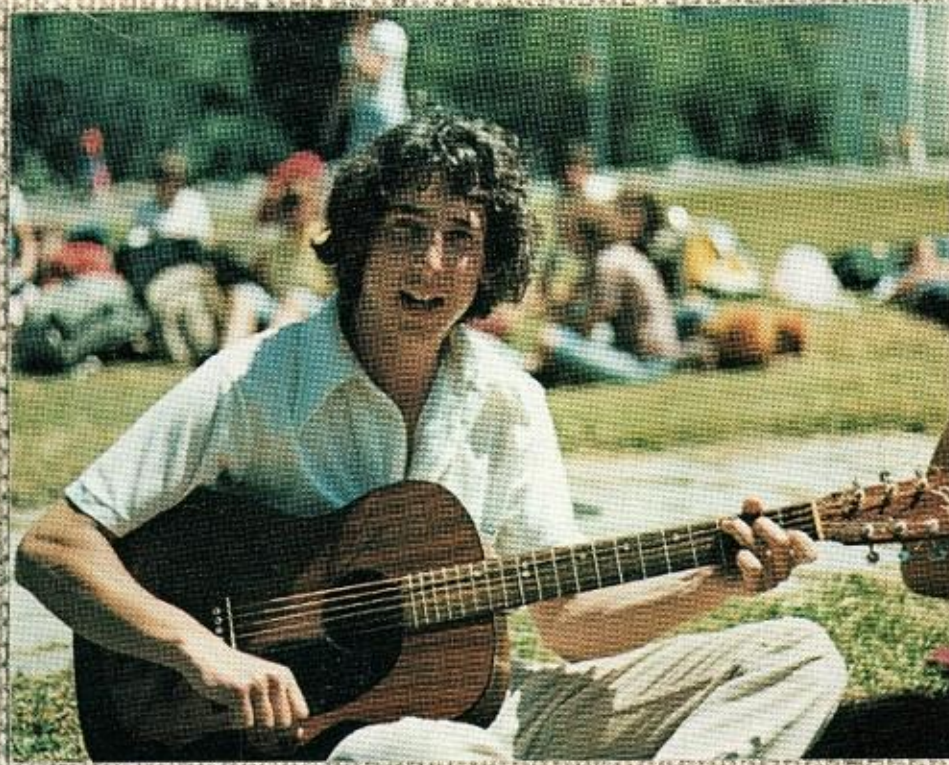

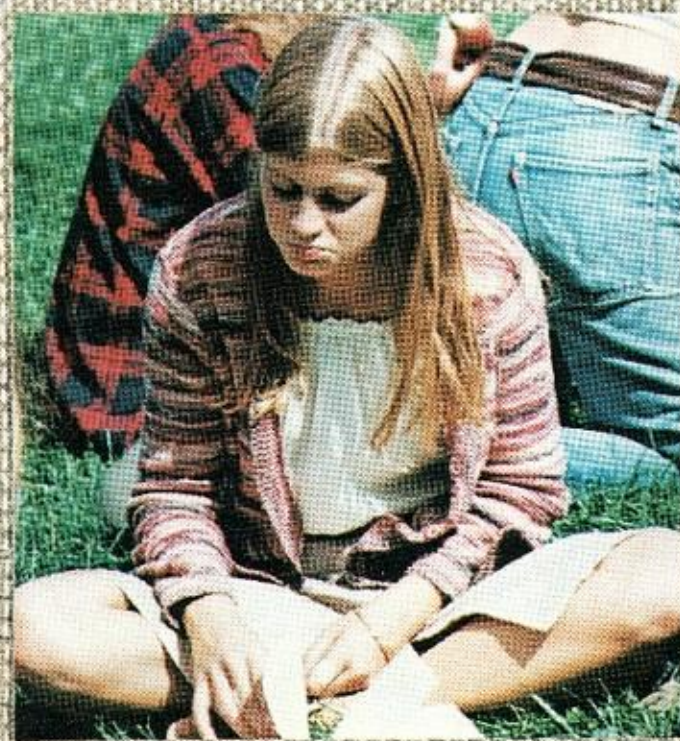

MR BILL LUNDO SON SEH!

THRU THIS YEOR YOU HAVE LEAD
ME DOWN THE PATHS OF INTENSE
LITERATURE, THE EXPERIANCE
HAS BEEN REWARDING, YOUR FRIENDSHIP IS HIGHLY VALUED, I SHALL SEE
YOU BATHRU CHANGES TO COME

PEACE AND LOVE
Boss Hogarth

Is the image i'm making the image
i see, when the man in the mirror is talking to me?

Bring me all of your dreams
You dreamers, Bring me all of your heart melodies
That I may wrap them
In a blue cloud-cloth
Away from the too-rough fingers
Of the world.

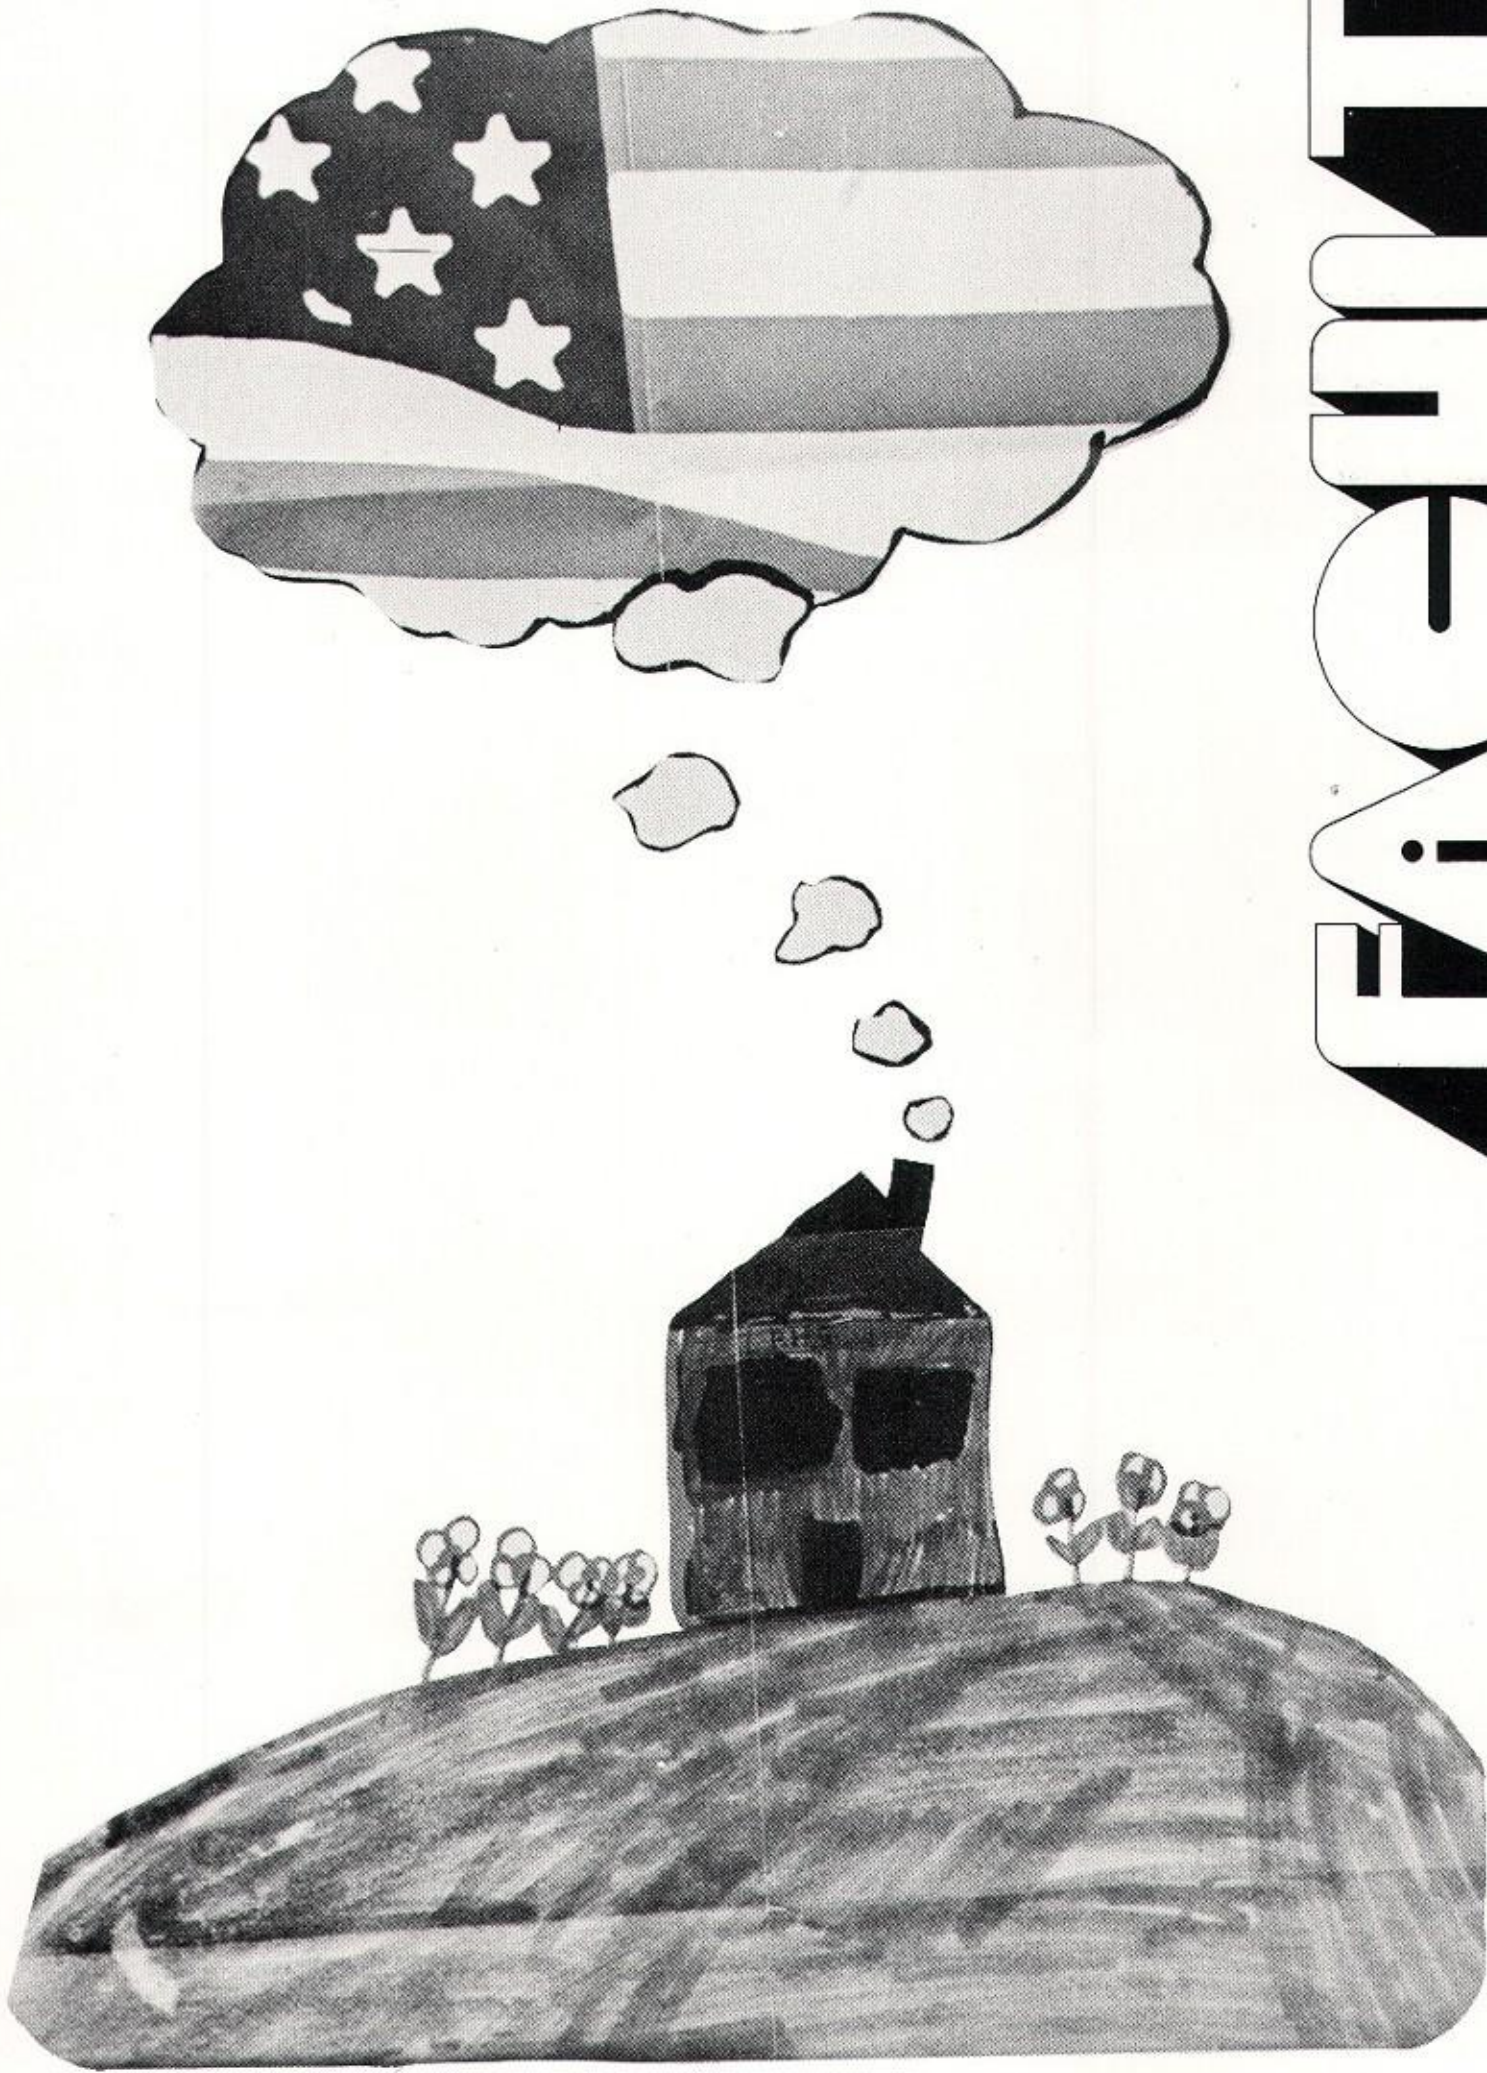

What does one say to a man who feels every happening and tremor that occurs in the Pleasantville High School? His sensitivity and caring cannot be measured. His respect for the people who walk through these halls is unwaivering. His care is shown everyday in his work, and is reflected in his smile. Our gratitude cannot be put down on this page alone. Our gratitude is unbounding. To you, Dr. Charles H. Wright, we dedicate the 1976 Green Quill Yearbook.

Dreams—so they say
Are for fools and they let them drift away
Peace—like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up—always up

Gymnastics.

With two 60's stuck on the scoreboard
And two seconds hanging on the clock,
The solemn boy in the center of eyes,
Squeezed by silence,
Seeks out the line with his feet,
Soothes his hands along his uniform,
Gently drums the ball against the floor,
Then measures the waiting net,
Raises the ball on his right hand,
Balances it with his left,
Calms it with fingertips,
Breathes,
Crouches,
Waits,
And then through a stretching of stillness,
Nudges it upward.

The ball
Slides up and out,
Lands,
Leans,
Wobbles,
Wavers,
Hesitates,
Exasperates,
Plays it coy
Until every face begs with unsounding screams—

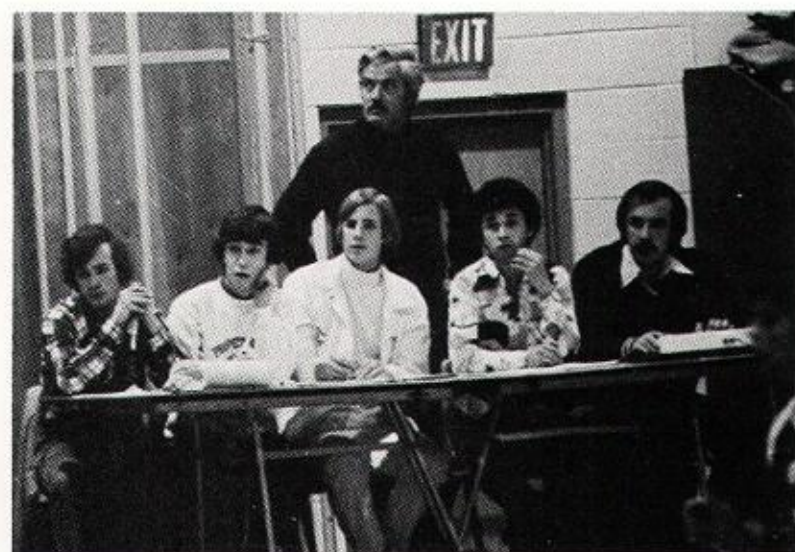

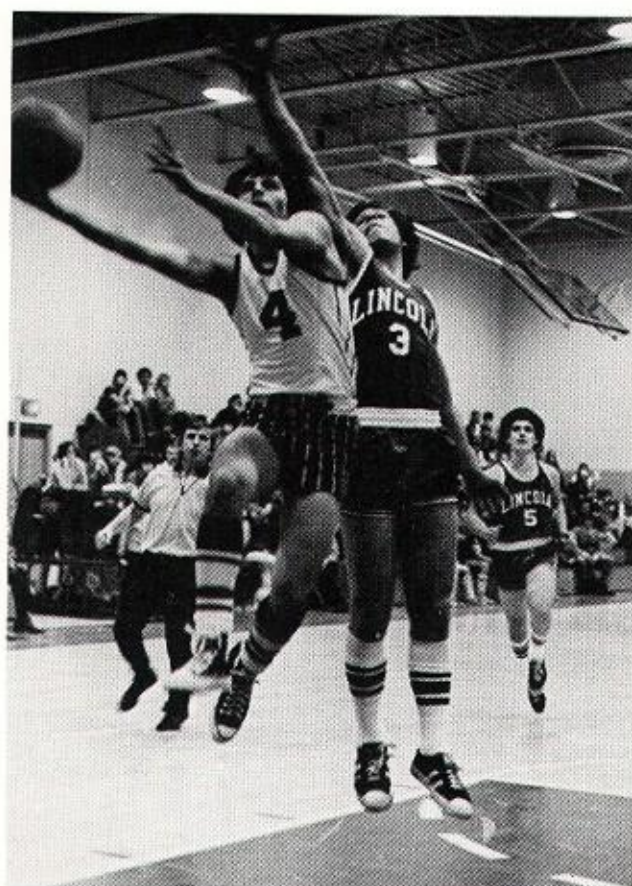

And then

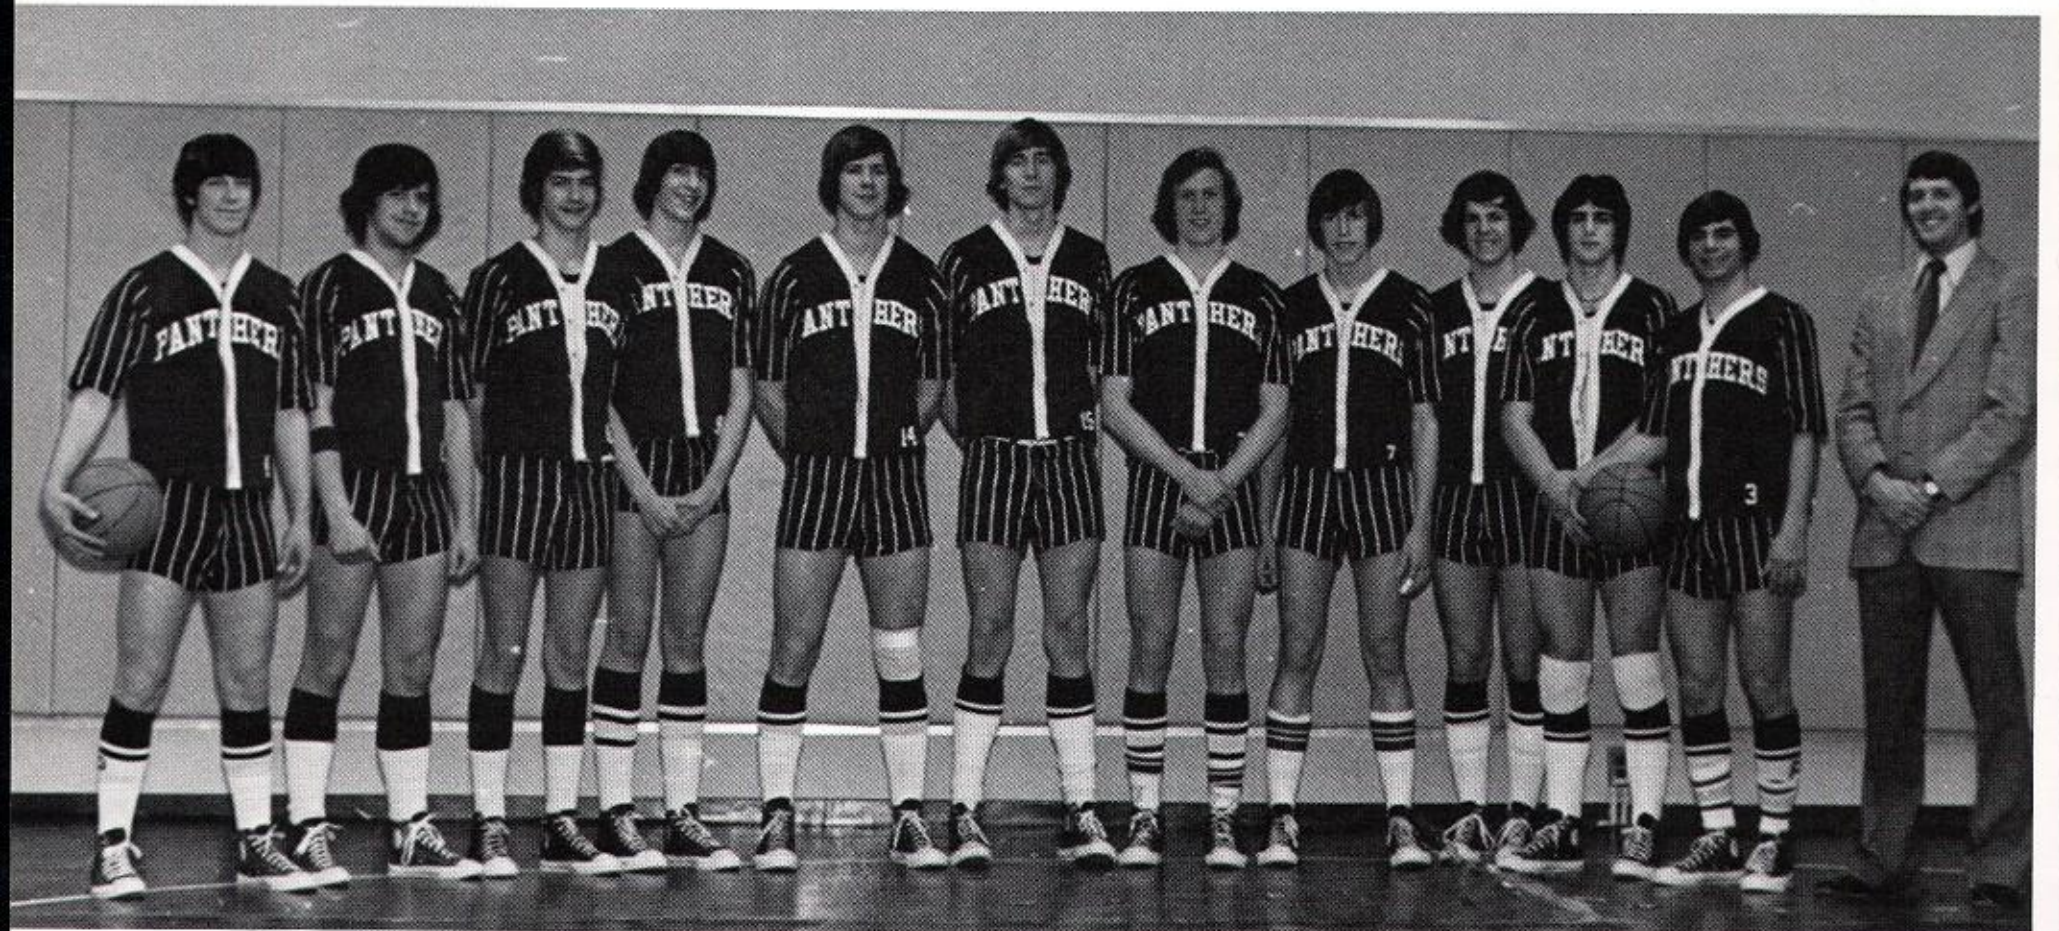

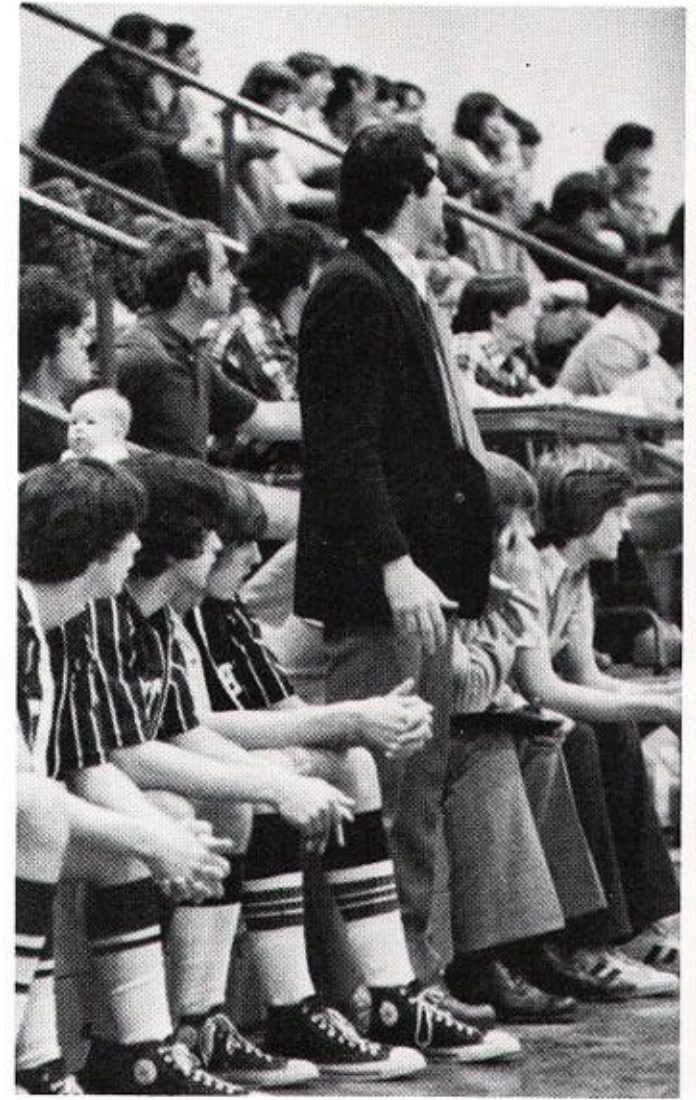

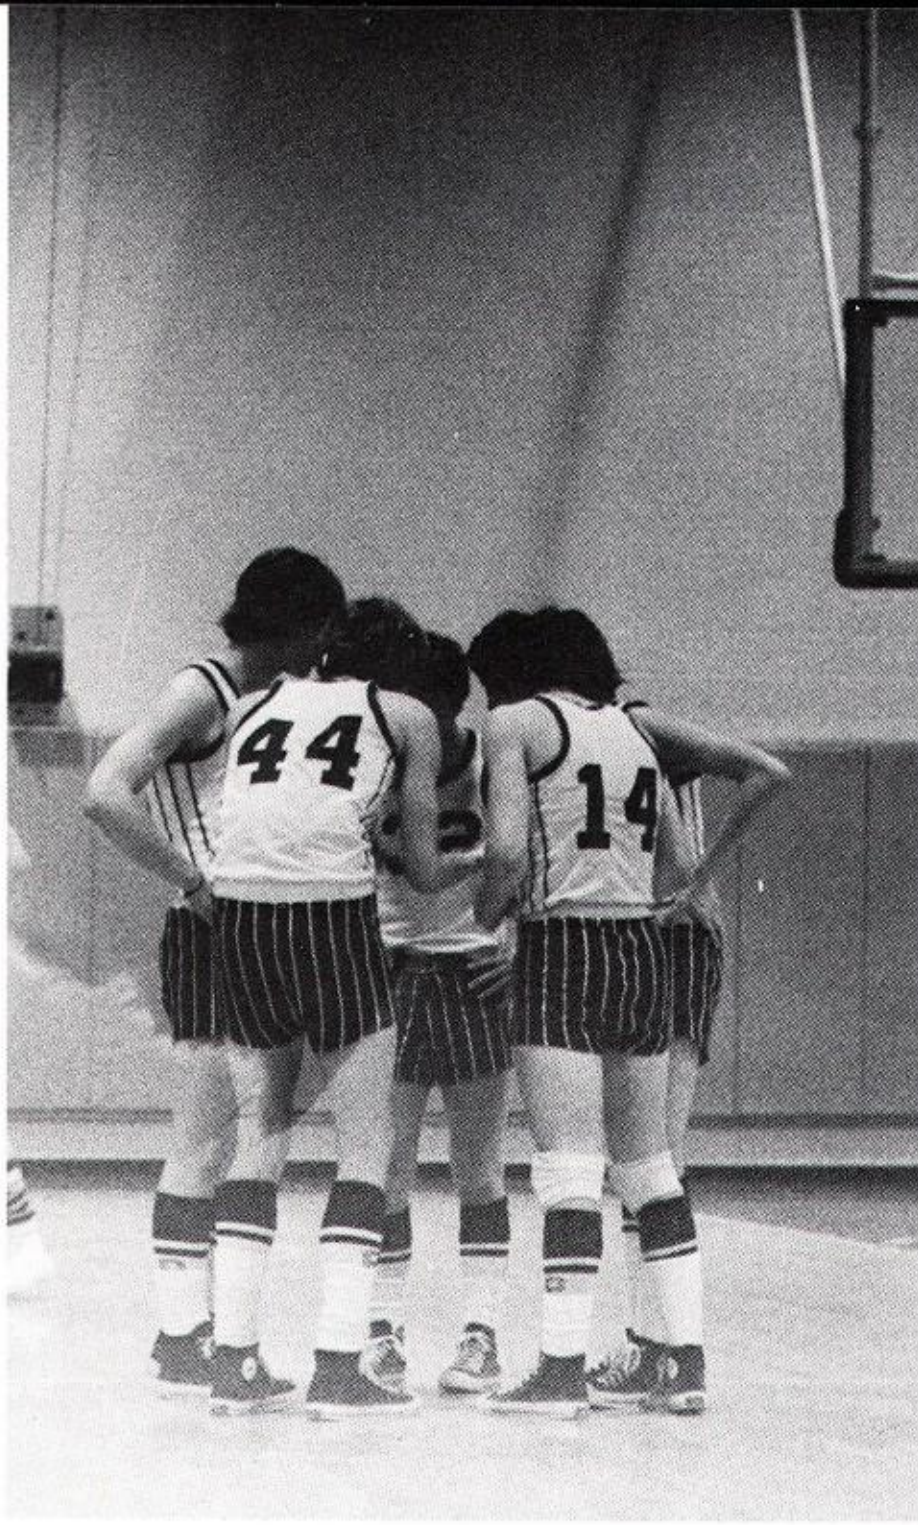

And then

And then,

Right before ROAR-UP,
Dives down and through.

GLIMPSES OF PLEASANTVILLE'S PAST

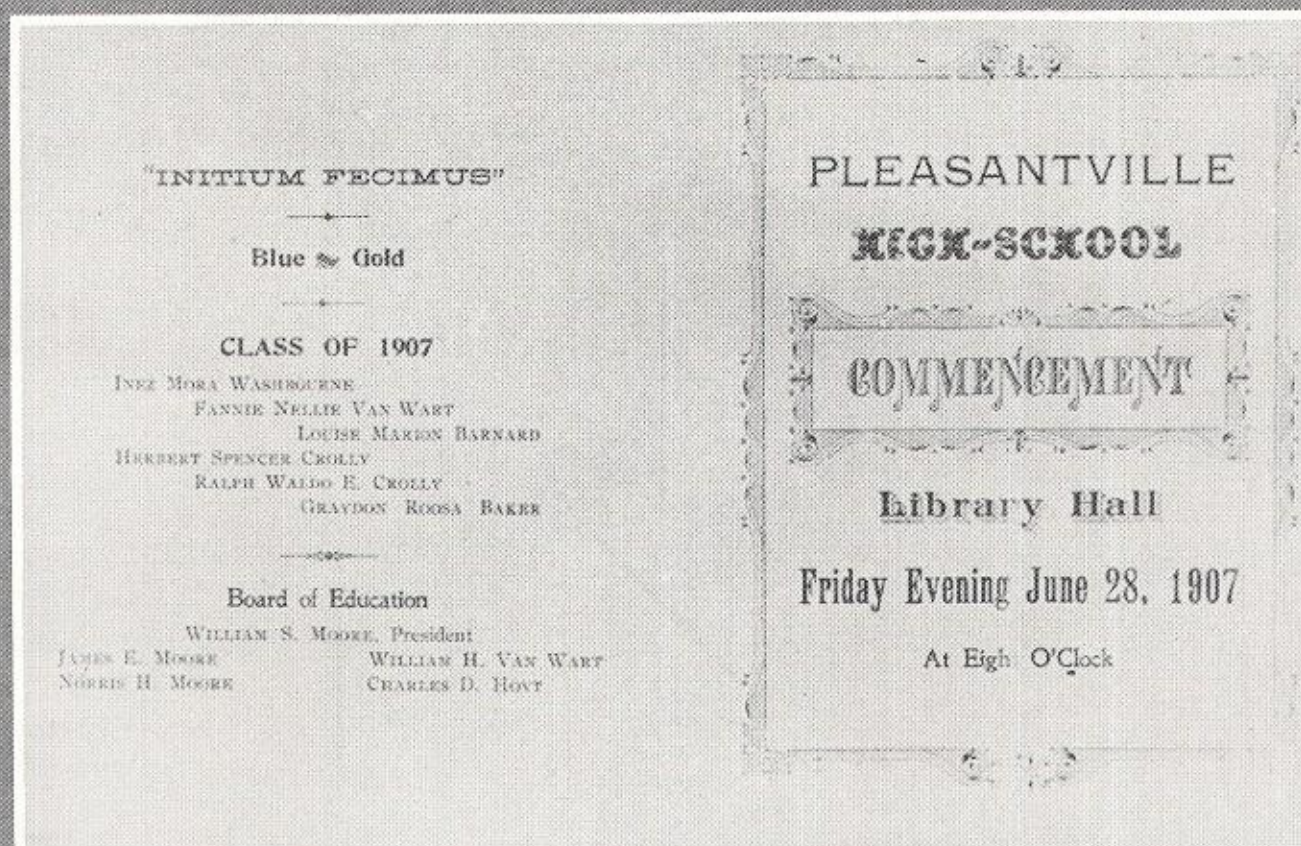

CAPSULE HISTORY

This Bicentennial tribute was prepared by John Crandall, Village Historian.

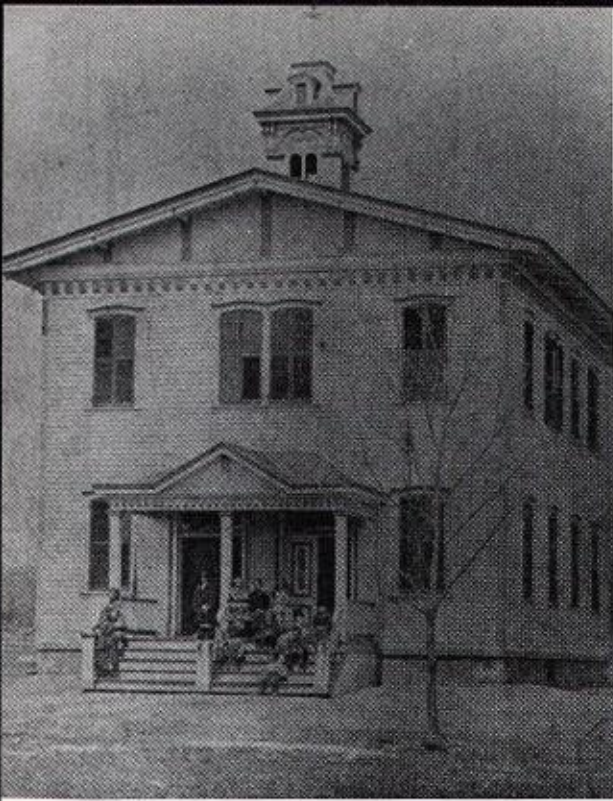

- 1826 Benjamin E. Hayes gives permission to erect the first schoolhouse on SW corner of his meadow. (corner of Church St. and Broadway in the Old Village)
- 1847 A new site is acquired for the school. The school built in 1826 is moved to Old School Lane and is currently lived in by Mrs. Ralph Menconi.
- 1858 Union Free School District #9 of Mt. Pleasant created. No legal status however.
- 1872 With the population increasing in the lower village, advice was given to centrally locate the school. The property on School Lane was sold to Moses Pierce for $1,025 and the land where the Bedford Rd. School now stands was bought from Samuel Shapter for $1,500.
- 1878 The grading system is instituted by Miss Grace Udell.
- 1902 State Legislature legalizes the the establishment of Union Free School District #9.
- 1914 Annex added to the Bedford Road School.
- 1923 Roselle Avenue School is erected.
- 1928 The decision to construct the new Pleasantville High School is approved by one vote.
- 1930 Pleasantville High School is erected.
- 1949—Cafeteria
1958—Shop
1961—Armco building (back of school)

After the high school was built, the depression unexpectedly slowed the growth of the village.

- 1954 Junior High School is erected.
- 1967 An additional $100,000 for Junior High additions is approved.
- 1972 The "New Wing" is added to the Pleasantville High School.

The Commencement program, listing the graduating class which barely outnumbers the entire Board of Education. At that time, the Old Library (presently the "Wreck") was the only building large enough to accommodate a large crowd, collectively serving as a community center for activities ranging from: Tie-Dances and strawberry festivals to local productions and silent movies.

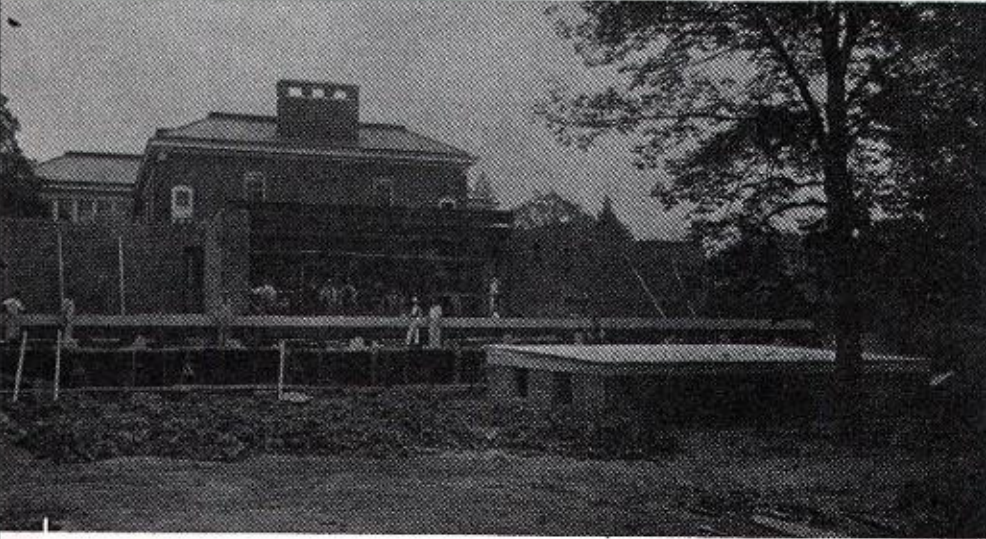

Second school structure in Pleasantville built in 1876 at a cost of $5,000. It stood approximately where the addition to the Bedford Road School was made in 1914.

Circa 1890 when the school boasted three teachers: Miss Merritt, who was killed in the wreck of the first northbound electric train, with Mrs. Browning and Mr. Lilly. (center by the post) Those stern faces reflect an age when the lifestyle was simpler yet harder. Children were frequently absent from school during the haying season, because the village was largely an agrarian based community.

The earliest photo in existence of New York State's first High School Band. John E. Morgan organized the band in 1913, shortly after he became principal. He is commemorated by a bronze plaque that hangs in the main corridor at the front of the school. What do you mean, you didn't see it?!!

The Bedford Road School showing its 1914 addition.

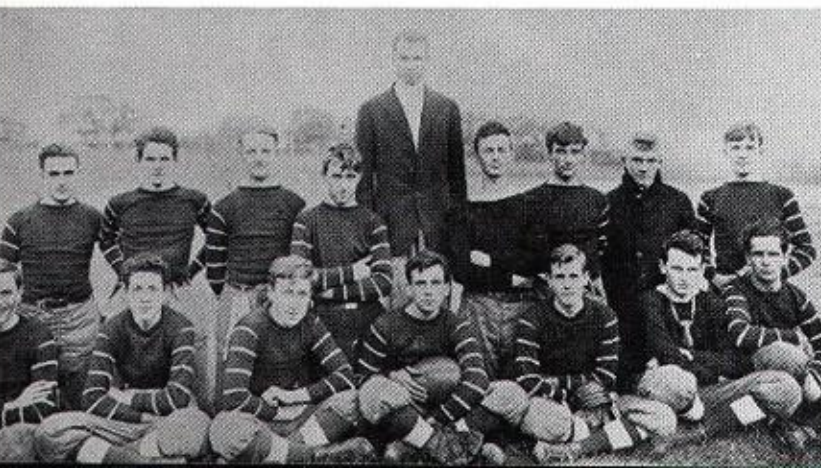

The High School baseball team of 1915. Local tradition has it that in one game against Armonk that year, Pleasantville's team in a psychological show of feet, took off their shoes, exposing their not-so-clean socks—a "strong team". But what Armonk did to them was a sin and a shame.

The Pleasantville football team in the early teens. That football was real pigskin too.

Nannahagan Park as it is formally named, more commonly referred to as "The Reservoir" by the current high school generation. The pond was a man-made endeavor toward beautification and practicality, when people of a slower-paced age had time to think of such things. It utilized an east branch of the Saw Mill River, called Nannahagan Brook. Below the reservoir was housed the original "Ole Swimmin' Hole" for your grandparents, until a rash of epidemics caused the health board to admit they were "all wet" on their initial idea.

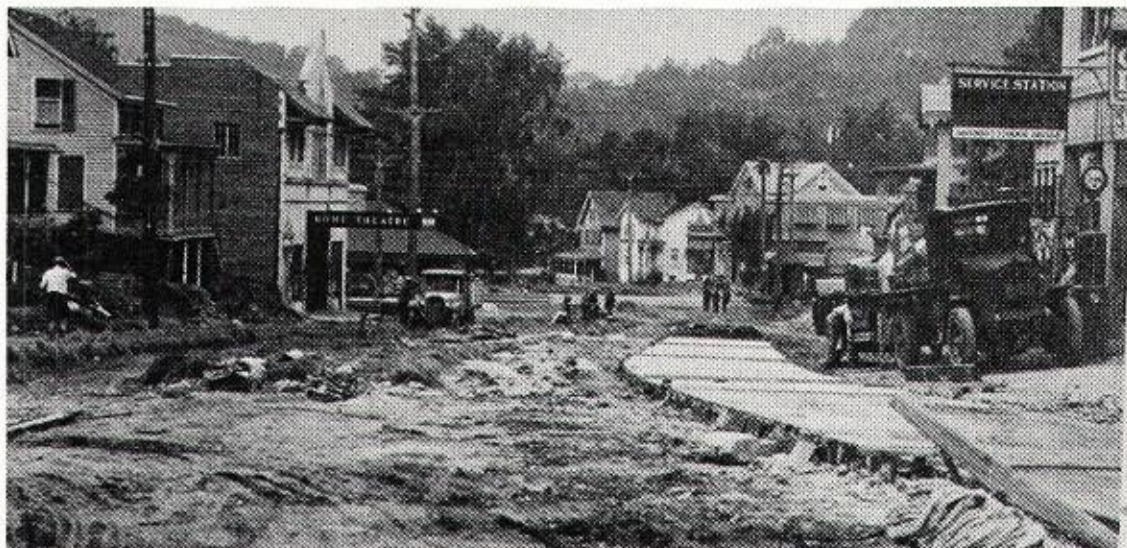

The Old Library, built in 1896.

The O.V.—Where Pleasantville all began. Now relegated to patch-work zoning, very old houses and an original Indian trail.

The lower village and one of its major improvements in 1929. The paving of the road made it possible for the youth to test their flivers out, which boasted doing 25 m.p.h. in the mud.

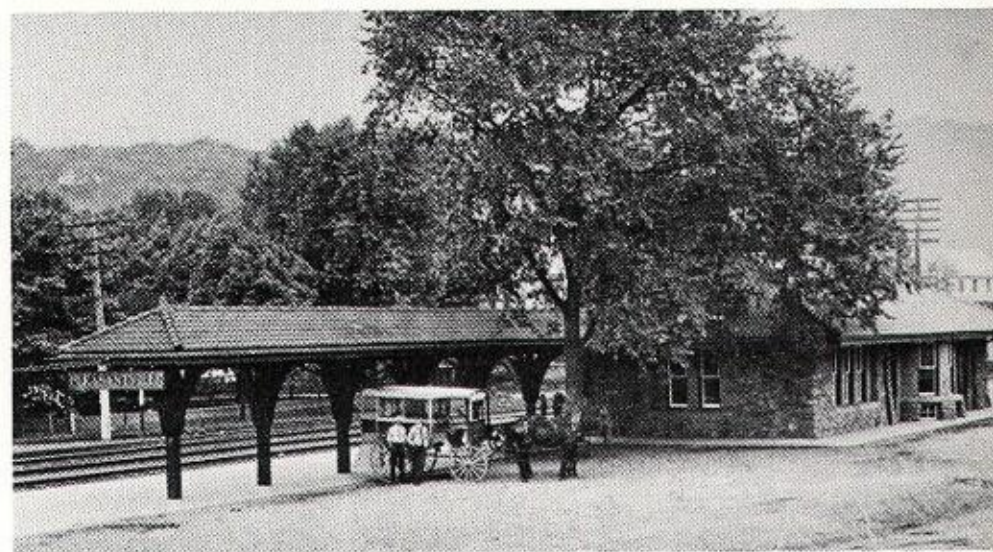

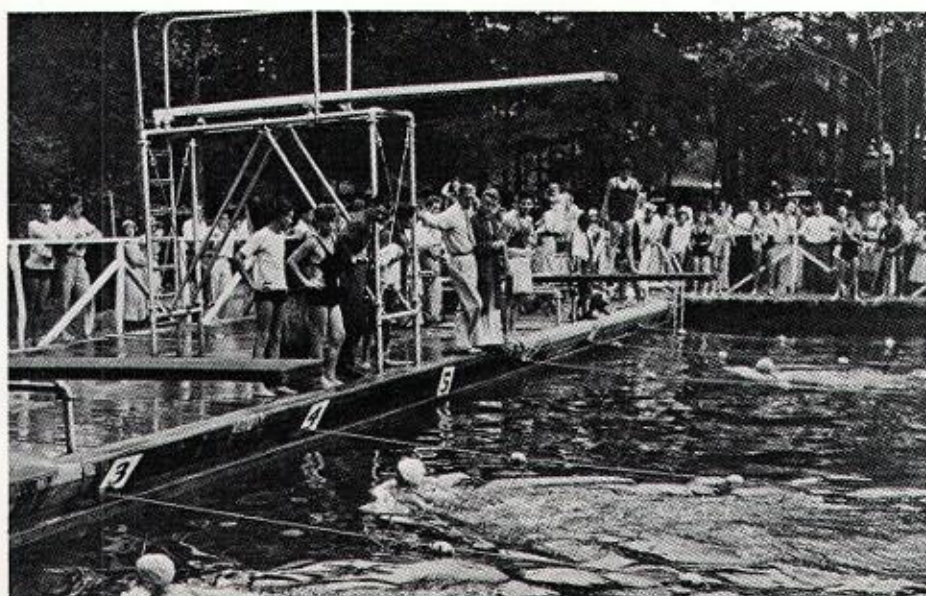

The rustle of activity on Wheeler Avenue in 1905 with two livery stables shown here, long before the advance of the car. Sounds would blast through the dead of night, as the old steam iron locomotives would make their way through Pleasantville.

The Memorial Plaza during its construction period in 1929.

The Pleasantville Pool in the late 1930's. Note the boys' swim suits, when bare chests were improper in public, some insisting this was for sanitary reasons.

The Depot around 1908.

The Memorial Plaza following its completion—The pride of Pleasantville in June 1930.

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE CLASS OF '75

I dreamed i floated at will in the great ether, and i saw the world
floating not far off, but diminished to the size of an apple, then an angel took it in his hand and said, "this must thou eat," and i ate the world.

Looking Back

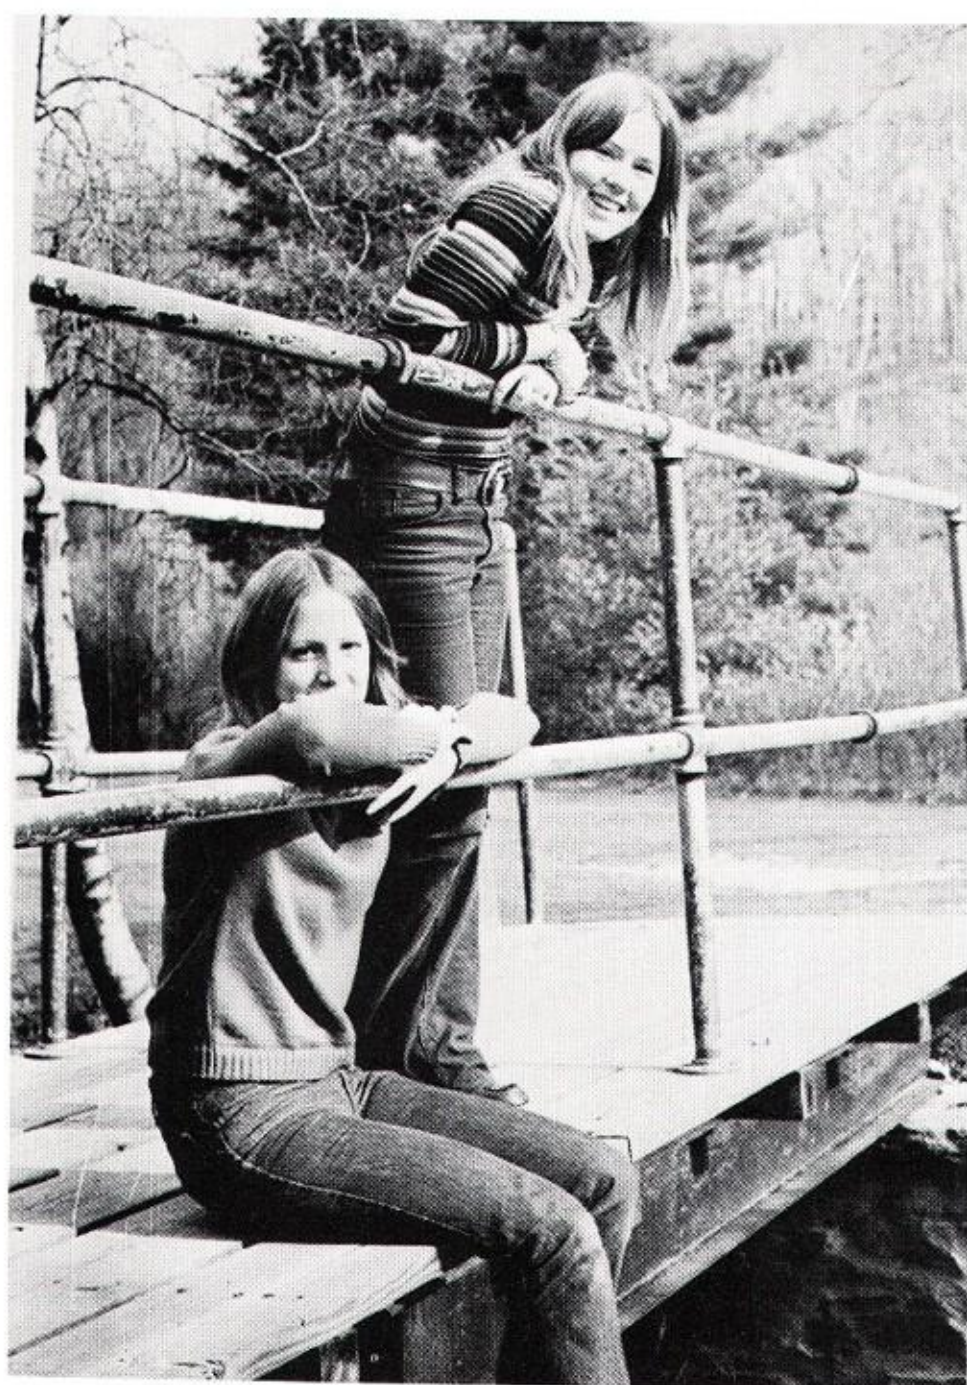

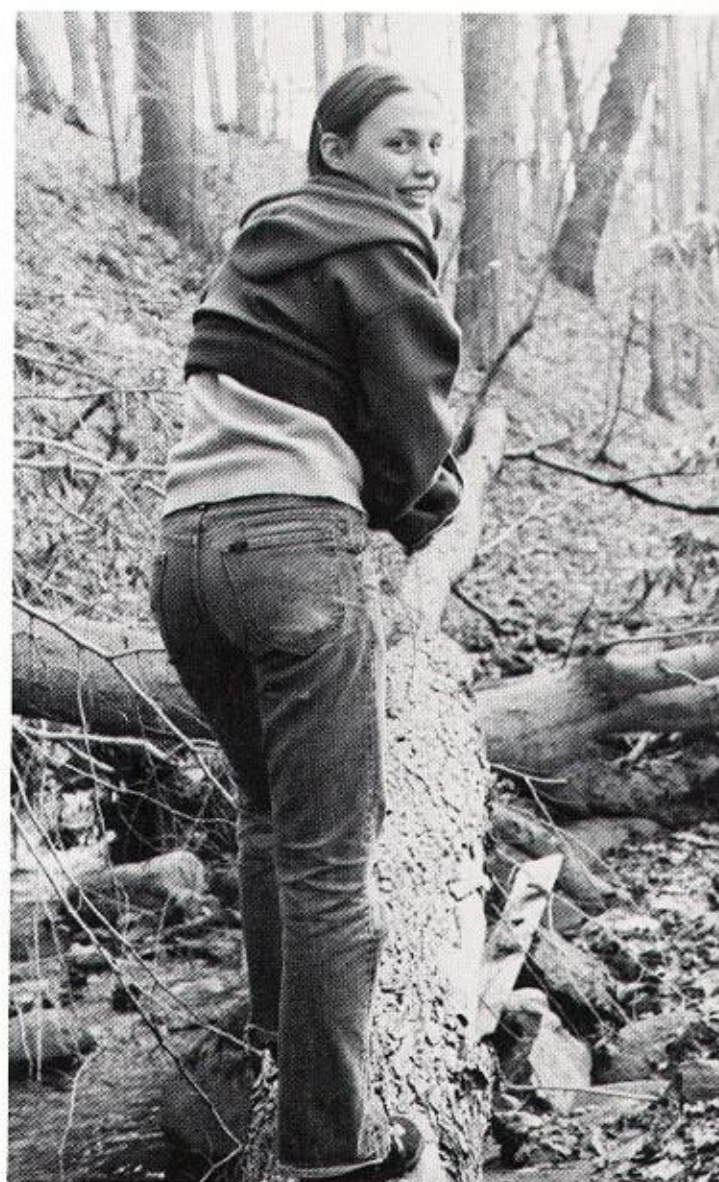

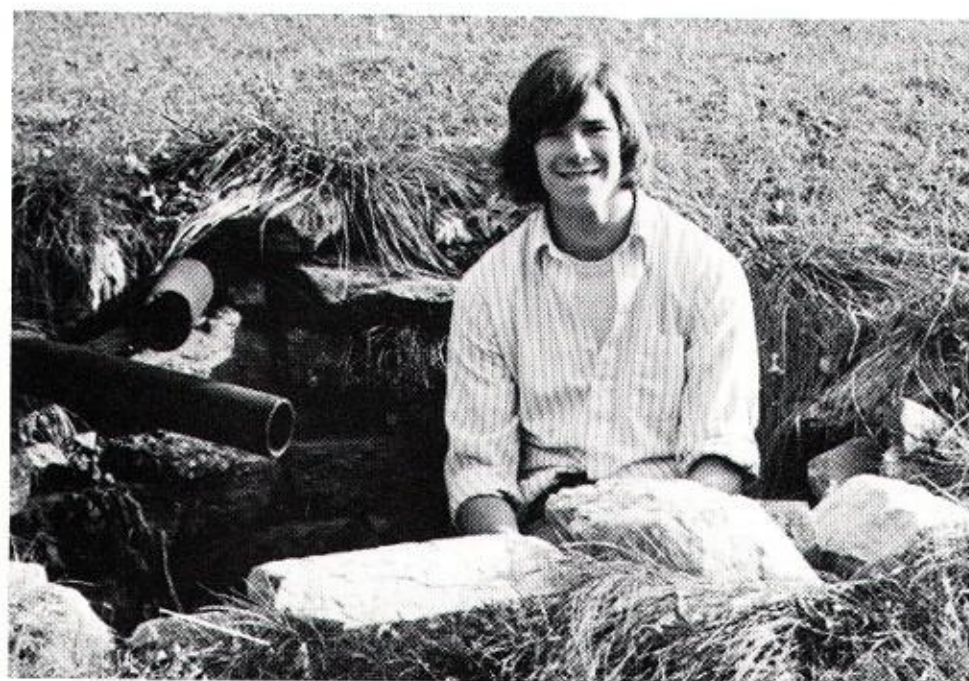

We can look back and remember,
But it's never quite the same.
It's just like never being there,
Though the memories remain.

We've had good times and bad, winning streaks and losses,
School days, Saturday nights, and reservoir parties,
Caravans, Phi Zap, and a few quiet moments to share.
And we all have these special memories,
Safely tucked away somewhere.

In the years to come, we'll still remember,
How much we grew in four short years,
Wishing we could return again;
Once again laughing!
Once again loving!
Once again living!

"Eat my shorts!"

To fling my arms wide
In some place in the sun,
To whirl and to dance
Till the white day is done.
Then rest at cool evening
Beneath a tall tree
While night comes on gently dark like me —
That is my dream.

Mr. Lund -

I want to thank you for all you have taught me this year. I really enjoyed it.

I want to say one thing that I will always remember.

"All experience is an arch where through gleams that untravel world whose margins fades

Forever and ever when I move"

Alfred Lord Tennyson "Ulysses"
